California Community Colleges Chancellor Brice W. Harris to Hold Media Teleconference Wednesday on System's Fall Enrollment Figures

- ❖ Who/What: California Community Colleges Chancellor Brice W. Harris will hold a teleconference to discuss fall enrollment numbers for most of the state's 112 community colleges. Other community college leaders from across the state are expected to join Chancellor Harris on the call.
- ❖ When/Where: Wednesday, Sept. 11, 2013 at 1 p.m.
Teleconference call for higher education reporters with Chancellor Harris
Phone: 888-504-7963 Passcode: 5072953
Event Title: California Community Colleges Fall Enrollment/Back-to-School Update
Reporters are asked to RSVP for media briefing teleconference to communications@cccco.edu
- ❖ Why: Due to the passage of Proposition 30 last fall, California's community colleges added courses to the fall 2013 schedule and most are seeing enrollment increases. Of the 95 community colleges that responded to a recent survey, all but nine reported enrollment increases for the current term. Join the call get the fall enrollment update and a snapshot of what's going on with waitlists, course sections and more.

The California Community Colleges is the largest system of higher education in the nation. It is composed of 72 districts and 112 colleges serving 2.3 million students per year. Community colleges supply workforce training, basic skills courses in English and math, and prepare students for transfer to four-year colleges and universities. The Chancellor's Office provides leadership, advocacy and support under the direction of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges.
