SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Chancellor Brice W. Harris today issued the following statement on Gov. Jerry Brown's appointment of Ravneet Kaur to the California Community Colleges Board of Governors:

"I welcome Ms. Kaur to the California Community Colleges and congratulate her on this impressive achievement. In only 20 short years she has accomplished much to be proud of and taken an interest in improving the wellbeing of those around her. The voices of California community college students will be well-represented with her on the board, and my colleagues and I look forward to working with her to craft policies that continue to improve on the student experience."
